A MESSAGE FROM THE PASTOR

It is common for us to make New Year’s Resolutions every year. During the Christmas break, I kept seeing this one commercial again and again. I can’t remember the details, but the commentary referenced something called Quitter’s Day.

I had never heard of this, but apparently, the second Friday of January has become known as Quitter’s Day. This is the day people either reevaluate their New Year’s Resolutions, or they completely abandon them.

I cannot help but wonder about this for our spiritual journeys. How often do we commit to a new discipline or change in our walk; only to abandon (Quit) a few days or weeks after? How often do we hear the Holy Spirit whisper in our hearts to begin something new, and after a few days we begin to question or rethink what we heard?

I also had a conversation with my son Jonathan during the Christmas break about this. I loved what he asked, “Why do we wait for the New Year to begin something new. If we feel led to do it, why don’t we start that day?”

I think you would agree there is wisdom in this. If God leads, act immediately!

Pastor Mark
